

Many years ago the only people who lived in Canada were the Native People and the Inuit.

They hunted and fished for their food.

Many people live in Canada.

They come from different countries.

Canadians share their customs with each other.

Canada has many rivers and lakes.

It has large forests.

Many wild animals live
in the forests.

